Subject : The Proxy Explanation

To : Shareholders

According to the Department of Business Development, Ministry of Commerce has issued three forms of proxies to attend for shareholders meeting,

1. Form A is the general Proxy, which is not complicated and easy to understand.
2. Form B is the specific Proxy, which contains all details in each category.
3. Form C is a form used only when shareholders are foreign investors and have appointed a custodian in Thailand to take deposit of and take care for the shares.

In case shareholders are foreign investors and appoint a custodian in Thailand to take deposit and take care of the shares, the proxy form they may use can be either Form A, B or C. However, for other shareholders, they may use either Form A or B only.
